Office of the Governor

WHEREAS, May 4 to May 11, 1958, inclusive, has been set aside for the thirty-fifth observance of National Music Week throughout the nation, and

WHEREAS, music promotes understanding and the brotherhood of all men, and

WHEREAS, a full week devoted to music brings to our citizens an awareness of the importance of music in daily living, and encourages young performers and composers to new accomplishments, and

WHEREAS, city-wide programs in observance of this week are being planned in communities throughout the state to provide more active participation in music by all people and to foster a deeper appreciation of musical talent, and

WHEREAS, it is the desire and purpose of the Governor of the State of South Dakota, to aid this observance;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, JOE FOSS, Governor of the State of South Dakota, hereby proclaim the week beginning May 4 and extending through May 11, 1958, as NATIONAL MUSIC WEEK, and urge that during this week all citizens, both musicians and non-musicians, make music a part of their lives by sponsoring programs and activities appropriate for the observance.
